Dedicated To . . .

Mr. McLaren and Mrs. Reitz

The 1969 DEMON Yearbook is being dedicated to two people this year, Mrs. Freida Reitz and Mr. Al McLaren.

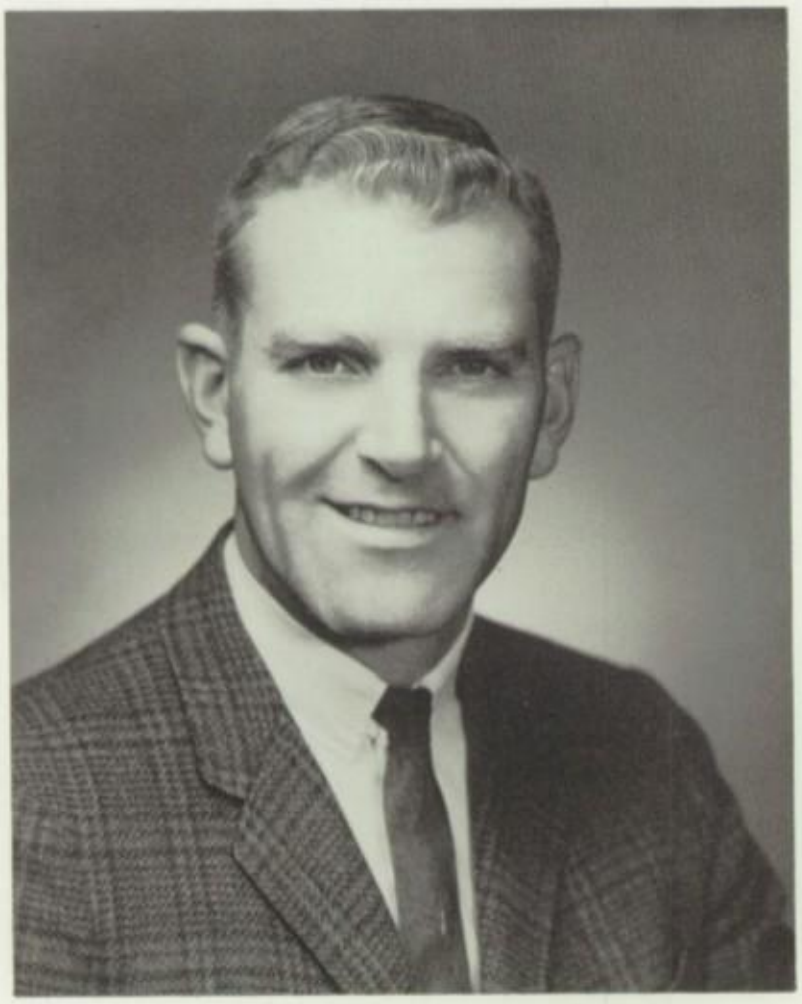
Mr. McLaren has taught at Golden High School for the past seven years. Mr. Mac not only teaches American History but is coach of the baseball team and assistant coach of the football team. His hobbies include hunting for ghost towns, golf, and fishing.

Mr. McLaren graduated from St. Austin College, Texas, majoring in history and minoring in biology and physical education. At the present he is working on his masters at Colorado State College.

Mrs. Reitz who is the head of the Business Department of GHS, has taught at Golden for 12 years. She teaches typing, office occupations, notehand, and clerical office practice. Mrs. Reitz is also sponsor for the Golden Chapter of FBLA.

Mrs. Reitz, a graduate of Colorado State College at Greeley, is presently working on her Masters Degree. Her husband is an employee of the Coors Company and they have four children, two boys and two girls.

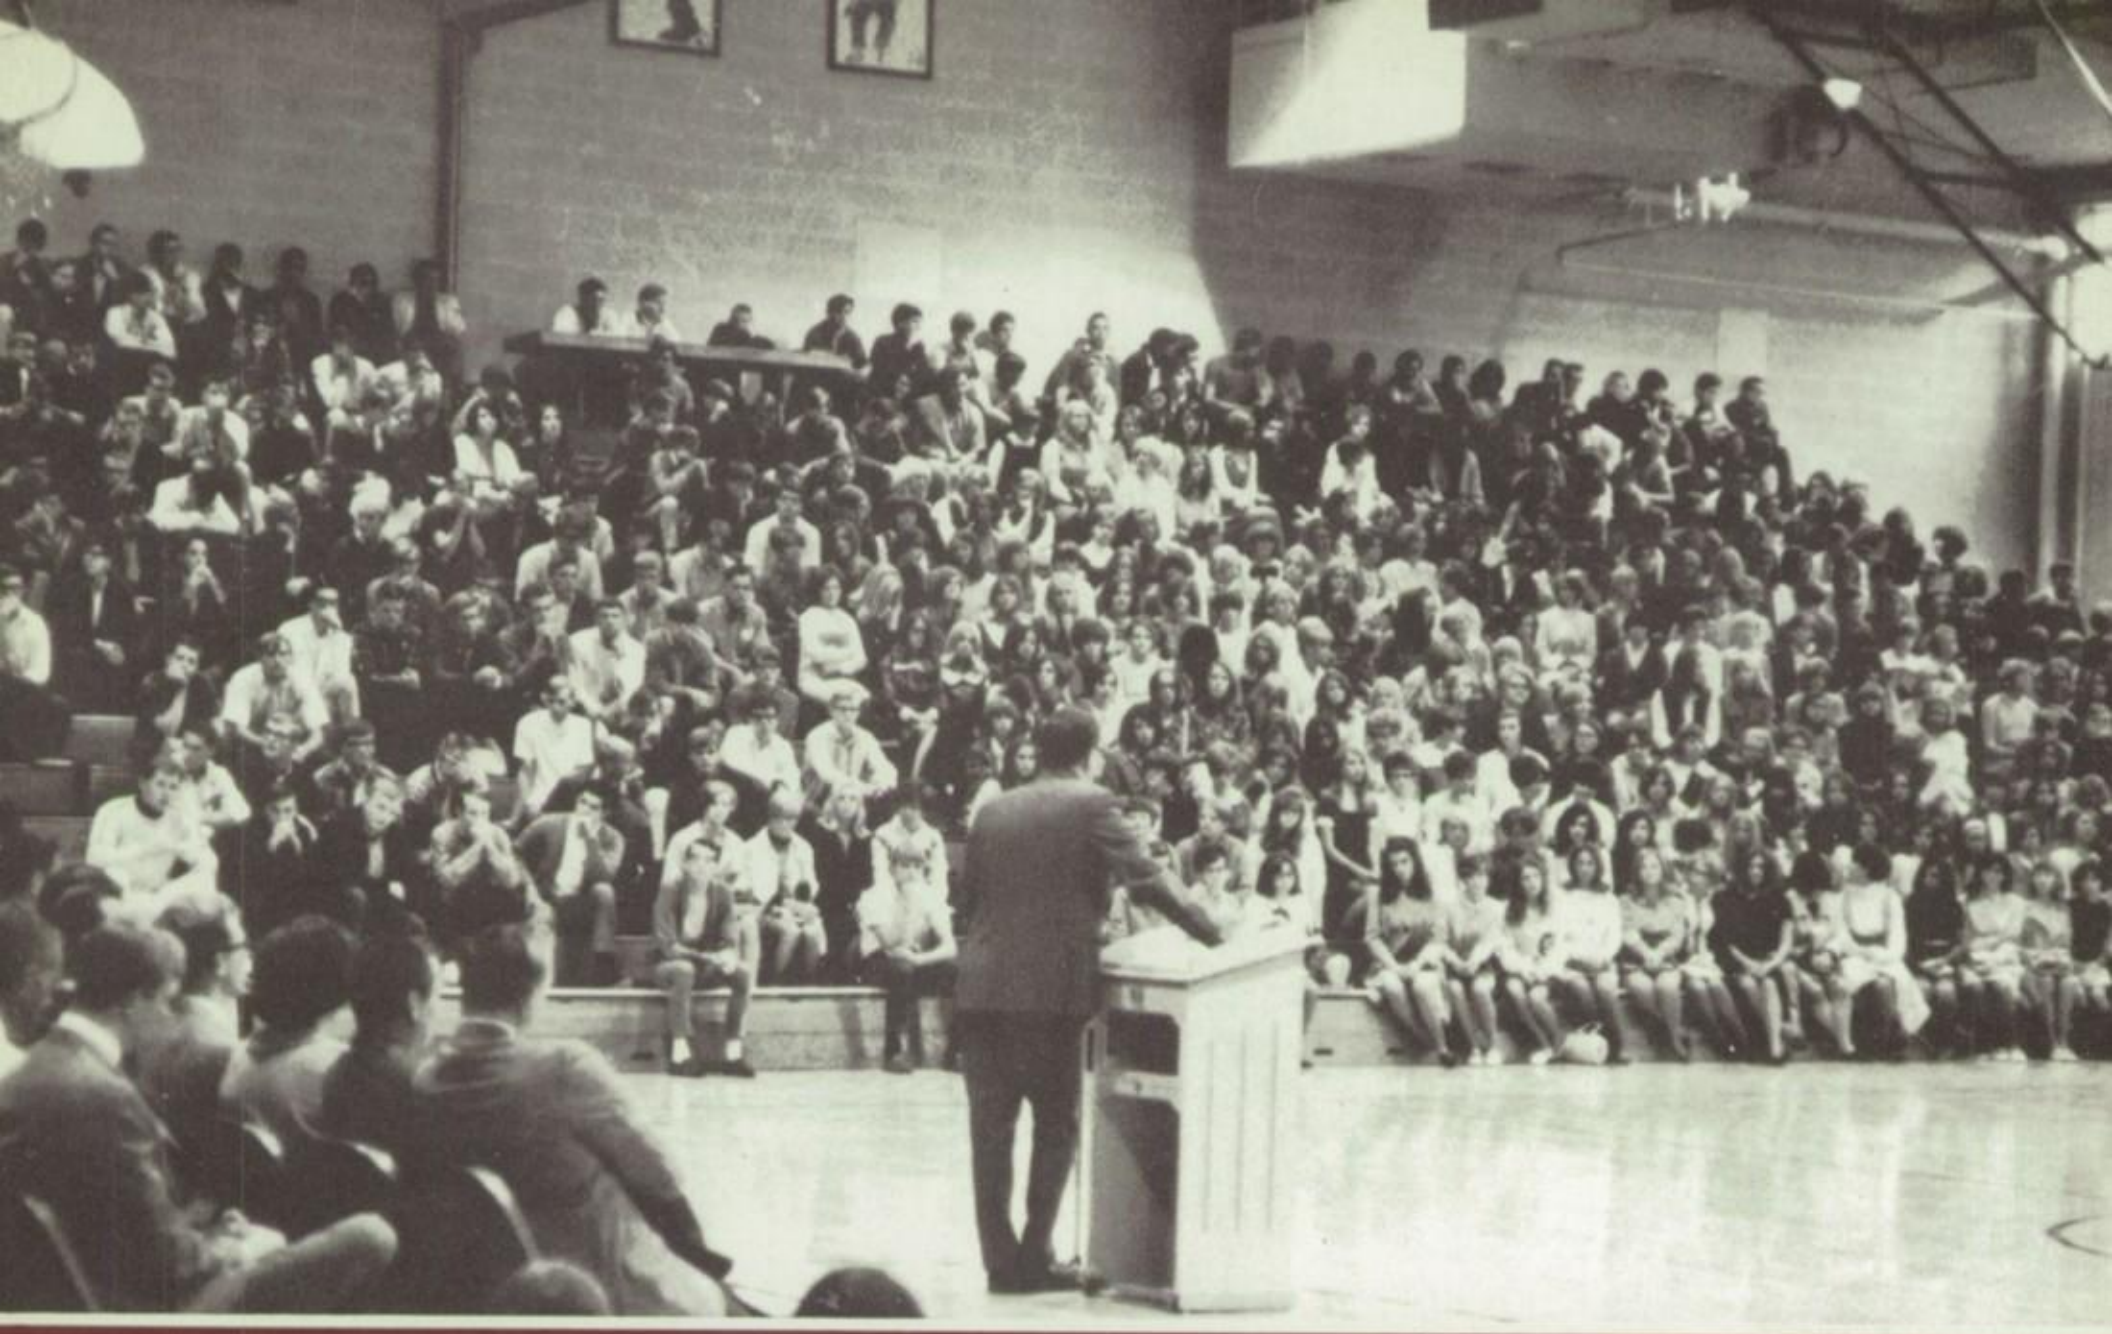
It is with great pride and honor that the 1969 staff dedicate this yearbook to two very fine individuals and teachers of Golden High School, Mrs. Reitz, and Mr. McLaren.



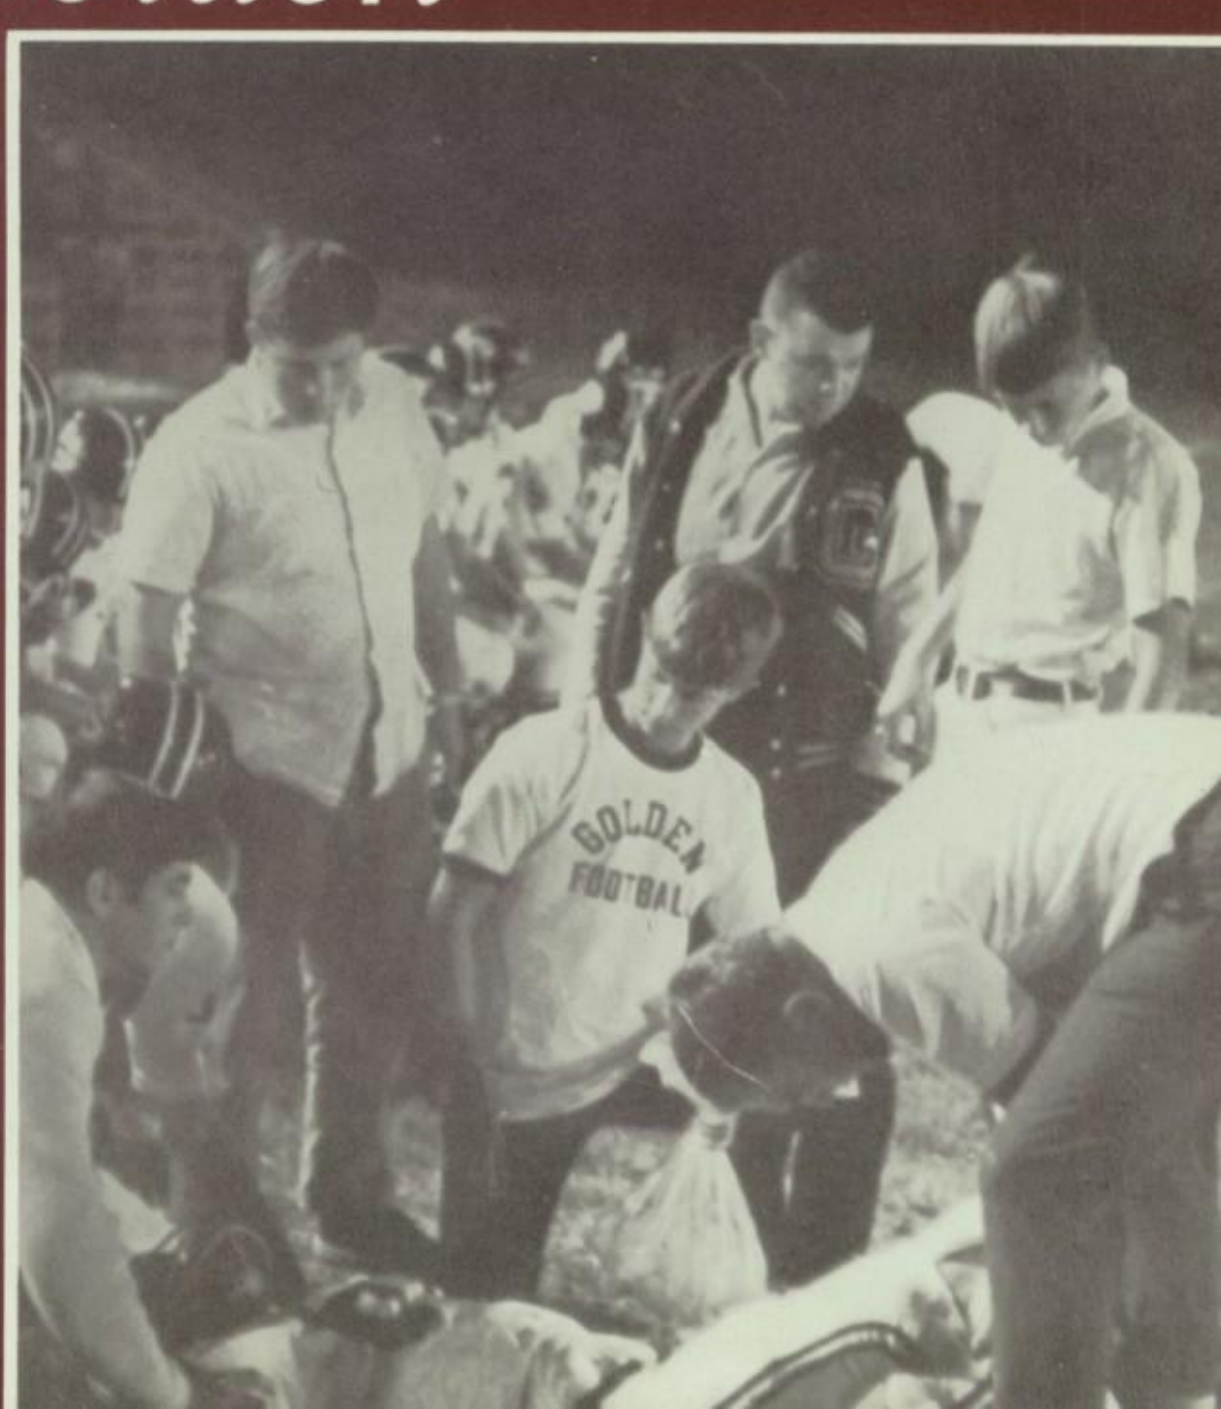
Mrs. Reitz finds a few minutes to review her lesson during a typically busy day.

Mr. Mac, beaming over the Homecoming win, is walking with Cliff Pike (10) and Kim Barnes (41) after the game.

There's A High School



Out At Golden



Sophomore

Wednesday, September 4, 1968, was the first day of Sophomore Week of the new school year. The new sophs quickly fell into place, obeying every whim of the seniors of 1969. Sophomores, who tried to prove their independence by ignoring the senior demands, provided a rollicking time in Kangaroo Court.

Sophomores demonstrate many times their "love" for the seniors of '69'.

Week

Sophomore girls, always eager to oblige the seniors, present a spirited rendition of "Mickey Mouse."

Enthusiasm reigns as sophomore boys heartily burst into song.

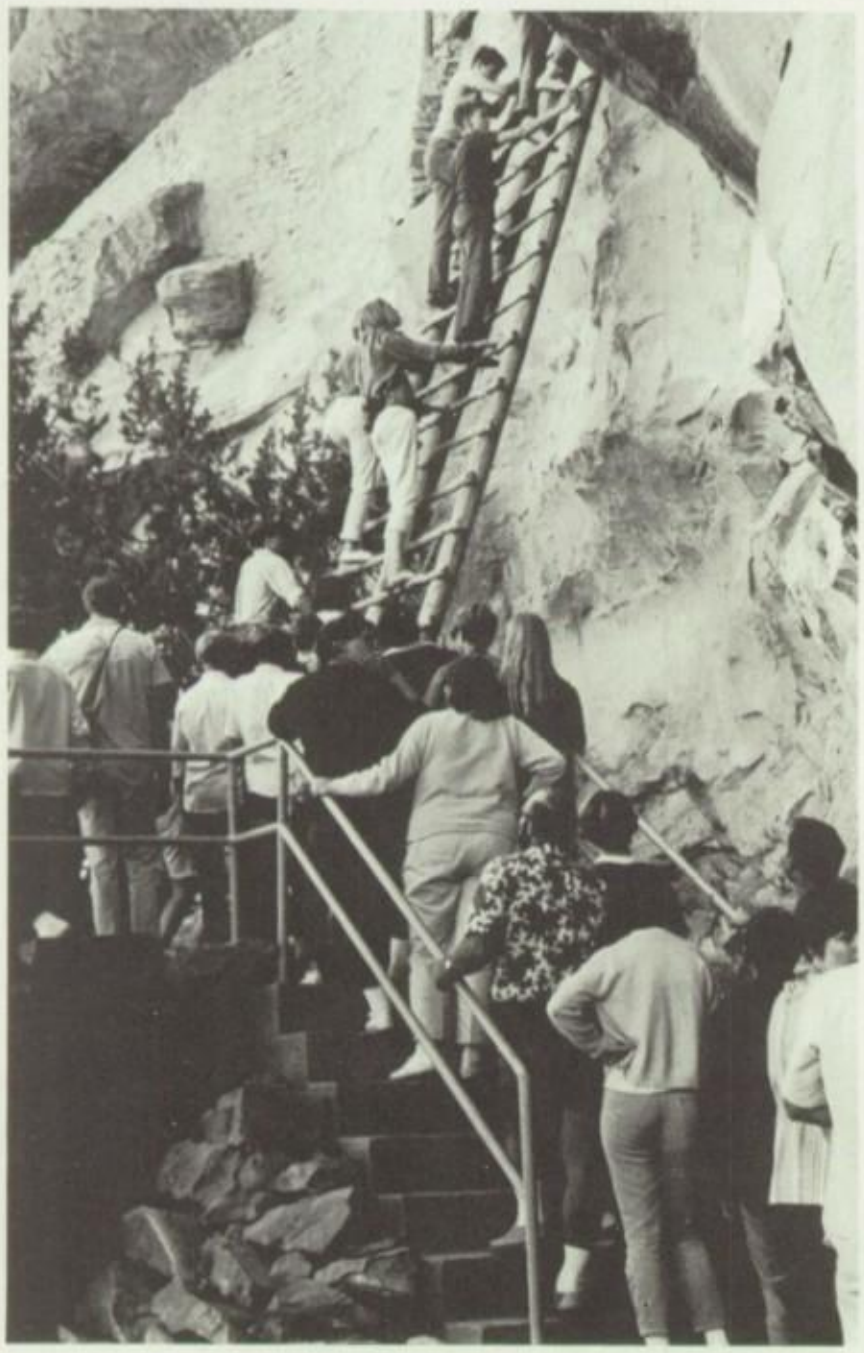
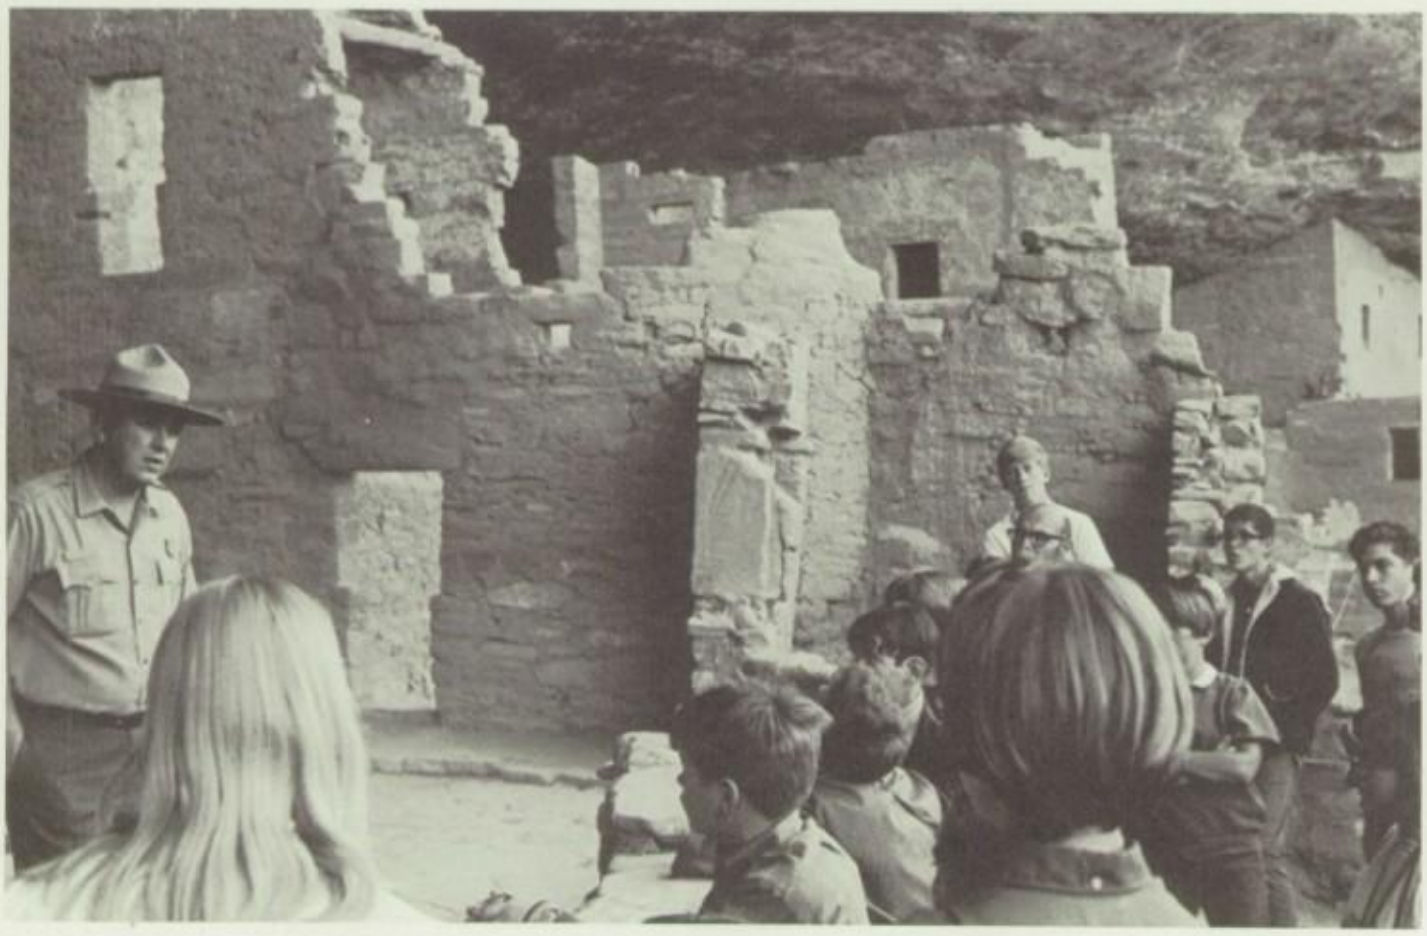
Spruce Tree House.



Mesa

The Social Studies department left for their annual Mesa Verde trip early this fall. They stayed at a motel in the park this year and started their tour Saturday morning. The major stops were Spruce Tree House (above), Balcony House, and the Cliff Palace. They returned Sunday, with high spirits, and memories of the bygone civilization.

Cliff House is attained only by these ladders, because the Pueblo Indians built to be inaccessible for protection against marauding Indians.



History comes to life as the ranger stops to talk about former customs and events in Pueblo history.

HOMECOMING QUEEN

Donna Warner

Homecoming '68'

Homecoming '68' started on cloudy Saturday with a parade. The Seniors made quite a good showing this year, 1st prize in the float contest and 1st prize in window painting.

After a victorious football game, Golden retired to the dance at school to watch the coronation of the Queen, Donna Warner, and to dance to the theme of "Up in Flames."

The Queen was crowned at the dance, where music was furnished by the Gallery.

Queen, Donna Warner, is congratulated by her escort, Cliff Pike, while attendants, Ann Roberts, Marti Kepler, Leslie Buckley, and Abby Herriman look on.

Homecoming Swings At Parade . . .

Bottle the Bears was the Senior's winning theme for the float contest.

Pep Club turned out in full force for the Homecoming Day Parade.

. . . And Dance

Senior class president, Jim Brunton, dances to the Gallery while Mr. Demon looks on.

There was quite a crowd at Homecoming, dancing to the theme of "UP IN FLAMES."

GREG

Golden
Relevancy
Experimental Group

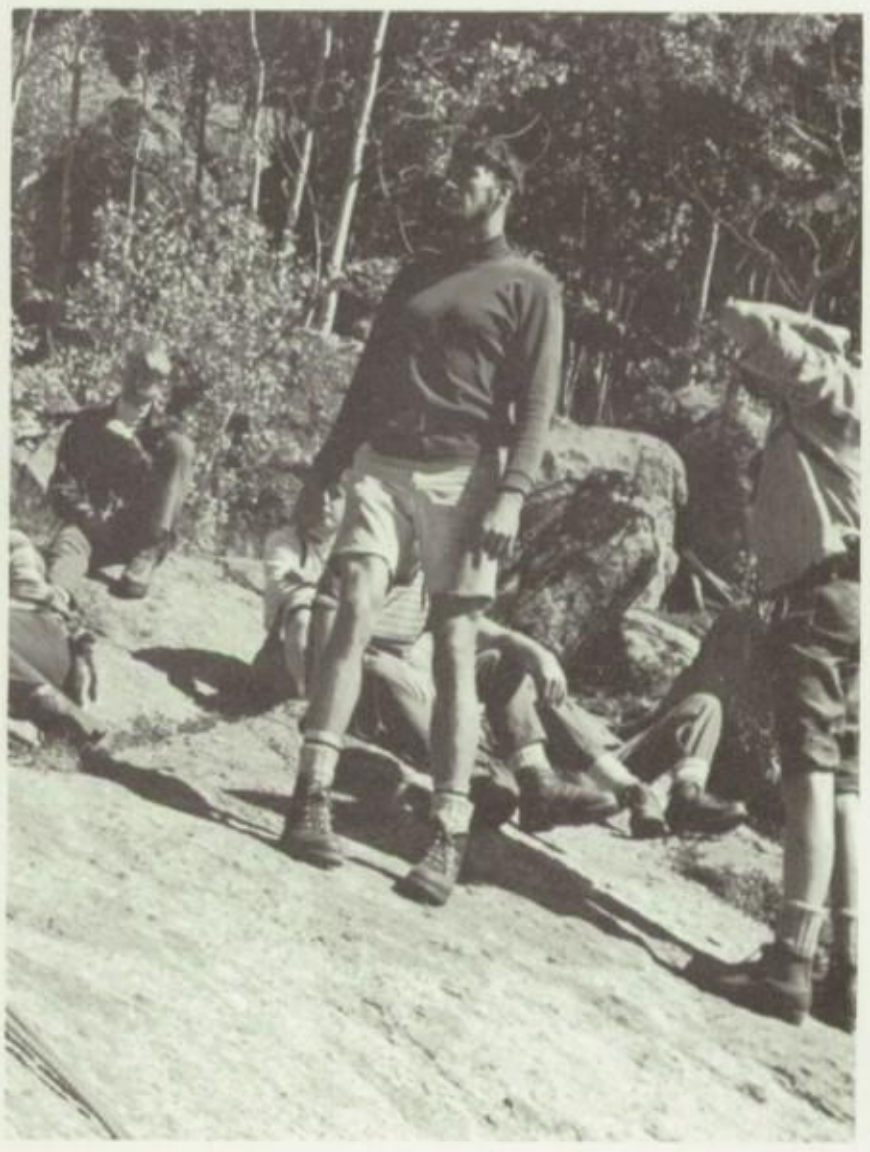
On the Mr. Evans trip, Skip shows Steve Corrigan knot-tying.

This year, GHS had a new and unique group formed. Fifteen boys under the direction of Mr. Skip Shuckman, Mr. Bob Arnold, and Mr. Dewain Wood, work, not at book learning, but towards learning to live together. The program is designed to bring out each individual's true character, to show the importance of each person, to make the boys more confident, and to help them think more clearly. The group was first tried on a camping trip just below Mt. Evans, on subsequent camping trips, and finally on their self organized trip to Mexico.

The trip in to the camp site, was long and all concerned were tired when they arrived.

Due to the weight of a tent, the GREG members carried in plastic instead. However, the lack of a store-bought-tent in no way lessened the comfort in camp.

Guy DiTorrice, with Steve Branson watching, poses in the camp kitchen.



Skip, also the Mountainering club sponsor, watches as someone rapels down front of a cliff.

Carnival King and Queen
Ken Taylor and Ann Roberts

Carnival Proves A Success

People arrived in mass this year to make the carnival a success. From the jail to the penny toss, people spent their money to make about $1100 profit for GHS. Later on in the evening the "Living Ends" provided dance music to let the carnival end with every one feeling good.

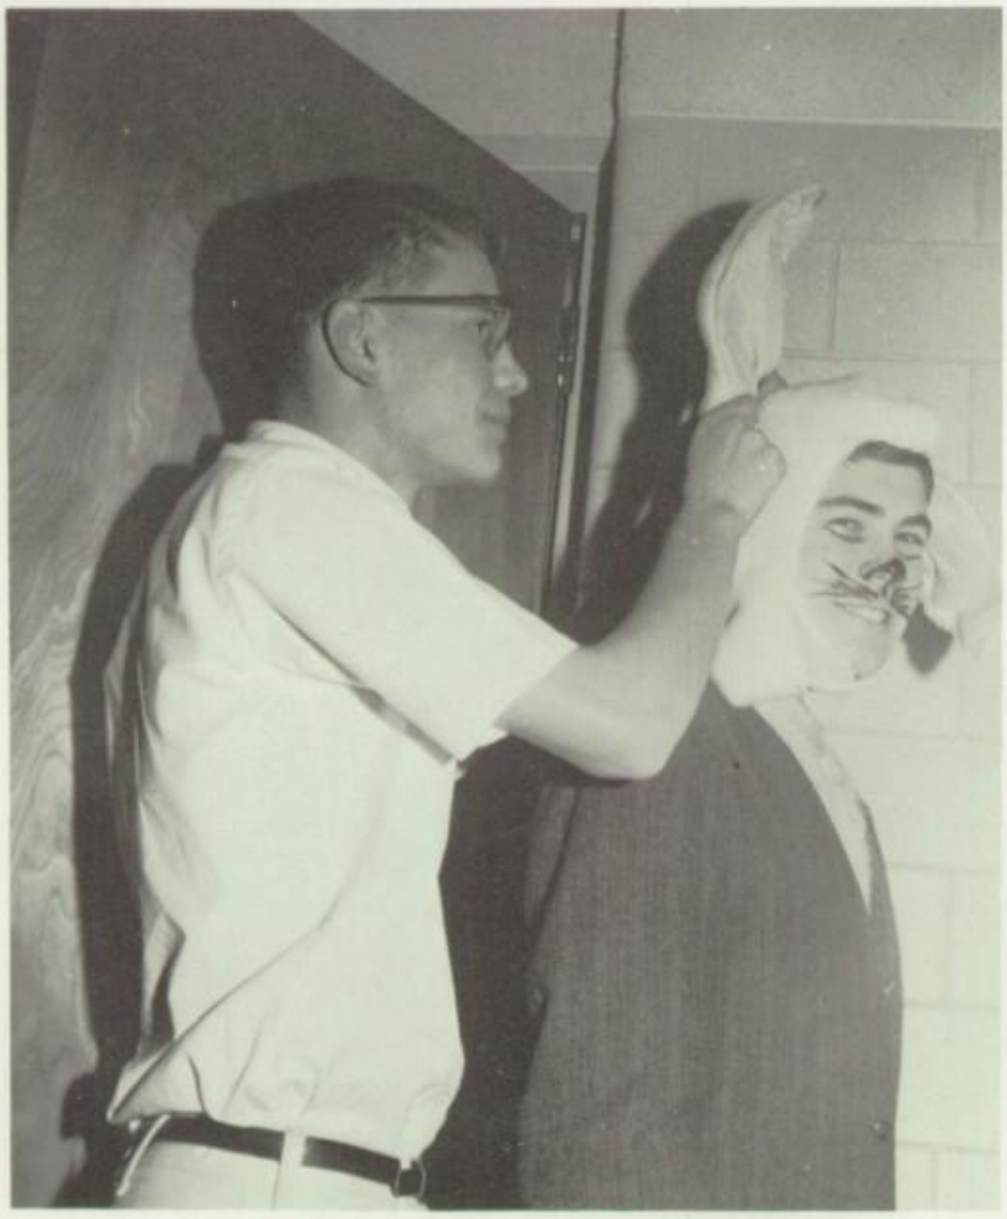
Various clubs sponsored different booths. This one was sponsored by the journalism photographers.

Carnival brought out the destructive urge in people as evidenced by the car bash.

"But Chessy," cries a frightened Alice (Kathy Potter) to the Cheshire Cat (Jim Brunton).

Alice Meets Wonderland

Lewis Carroll's "Alice in Wonderland" came alive in the senior class Fall Drama. Using the variety of talents available from within the ranks of their class, the Seniors put on an excellent play, in spite of a limited budget. The play netted more than $800.



Behind the scenes, Merle Gee, a stage hand, straightens the White Rabbit's (Frank Vandehey) ear.

Mrs. Mildred Morgan helps Tweedle Dum and Tweedle Dee, Elaine and Eileen Betez, with their costumes.

Ahhhh-choo! "Pepper!" screams the cook. "Lots of pepper!"

Running around with their eyes on the ground, Rock Club members sometimes find very unusual rocks.

Rock Club Rolls

Started this year by Mr. Pat Ryan, the Rock Club quickly became a success and made many field trips. The Rock Club picked up a fairly substantial membership, and started polishing their various finds.

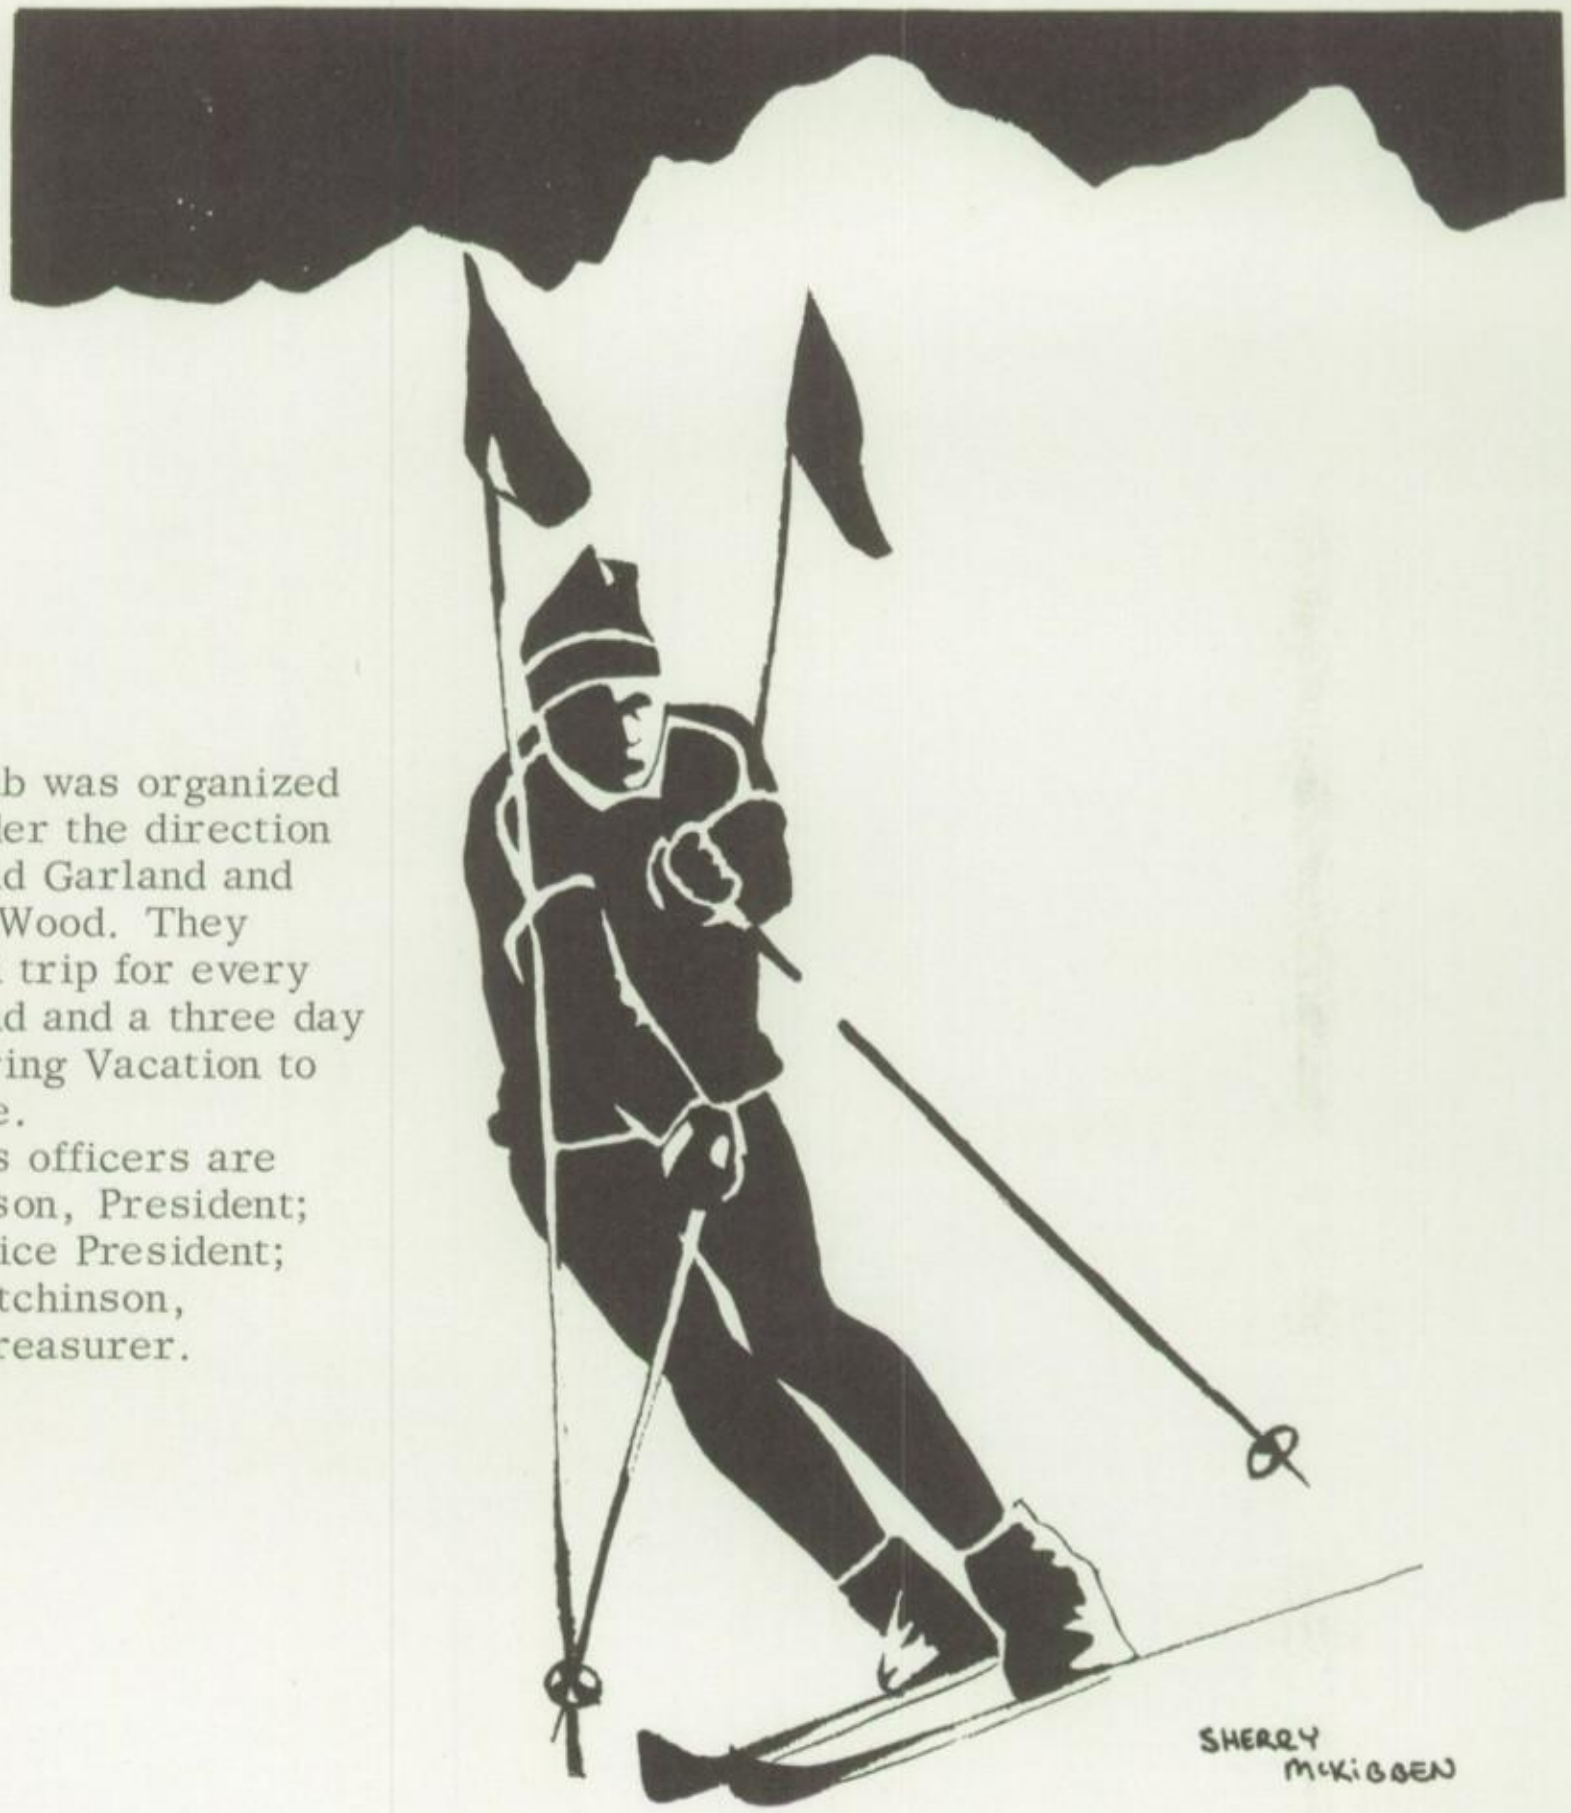
Before being tumbled, some rocks need additional attention such as sanding out the rougher places.

The Christmas dance was ruled in regal form by the Snow Queen Jenny McCarthy, and her court, Kathy Annand and Kathy Kermit.

Christmas Arrives At Golden

The Christmas Season at Golden started off with a blaze of color, igniting from the sparks of a decorating contest between the classes. The Christmas dance was burning too, with Aurora Borealis as a theme, and the music of the Crystal Palace Guard.

Key Club decorates the tree in front of the chool to fully prepare Golden for the Yule-tide season.



Ski Club

A Ski Club was organized this year under the direction of Mr. Gerald Garland and Mr. Dewain Wood. They planned a ski trip for every other weekend and a three day trip over Spring Vacation to Crested Butte.

The clubs officers are Ted Richardson, President; Sue Bates, Vice President; and Mark Hutchinson, Secretary-Treasurer.

Trials And Tribulations . . .

A story of the year must, out of tradition, present the highlights of the year. So also must the problems be presented, so the yearbook presents a behind the scenes look at the Trials and Tribulations of GHS. 68-69.

Student Council

Every year a new group of officers and representatives are elected to Student Council. They go in with enthusiasm and great expectations. But, it takes more than dreams to make a great Student Council. This year's Student Council had more than dreams; they had responsible people led by Mr. Dick Booton who planned and carried through a successful year. This year Student Council sent buses to the basketball games which boosted everyone's spirit. They also took over the election of Mr. and Miss Demon in hopes of making it a very high honor. Everything must start as a dream, but it took this year's Student Council to make this year at GHS a Success.

The children at Ridge home are a little happier since Golden's Future Business Leaders of America made them their project for the year. They sent stuffed toys and other various items to the children. Their sponsor is Mrs. Freda Reitz who is helping the members to develop qualities necessary in becoming Future Business Leaders.

Future Teachers Of America

There's a lot more to FTA than learning how to be teachers. For example, at carnival they had a booth. They also have guest speakers and visit different colleges. The most fulfilling event of the year was a visit to a head start school at Christmas. They put on a play and it was hard to tell who had more fun, the kids or the performers. Another exciting event of the year was the State FTA convention in Fort Collins.

Debating, listening, questioning, and speaking can all be heard when the meetings of the Golden Fortune Voice of Youth are held. Led by Mr. Lowell Sharp and Mr. Jerry Garland the students strive to develop leadership through clear open-minded thought. This year they were involved in two television programs, and published editorials in the Trident and Denver Post.

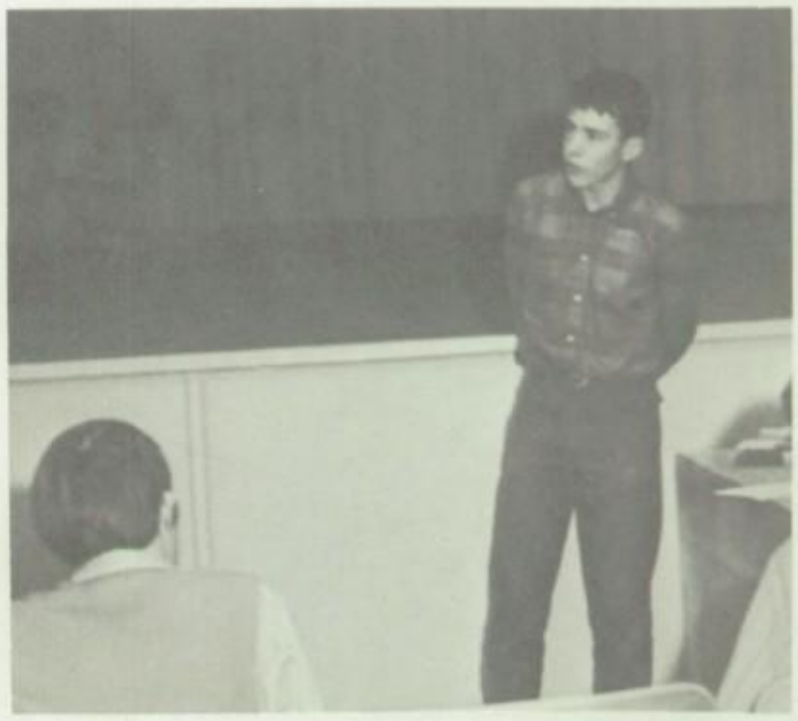
This year's Honor Society kept busy in promoting school spirit and enthusiasm. They sponsored a "Pants Day" to raise money for their various projects. They showed their great ability as ushers during the senior play. They also sponsored an assembly for the honor roll students at the end of the first semester and attended the Honor Society conference in March at Boulder.

Competitive Speech

Speaking often and well is Competitive Speech's motto. During the year they attended 15 invitational tournaments, one district qualifying contest, the state festival, and the state tournament. The big highlight of the year was a two-night stay in Alamosa for an invitational meet.



"How long should I keep this pose?" Craig McDonald practices for a debate while Steve Branson helps by giving advice.

Lookout Lettermen! Cindy Rillos, Eileen Rustad are trying on letter jackets with future expectations?

G-Club

If you've ever walked by "B" building at 7:30 on a Tuesday or Thursday morning and noticed a conglomeration of tattered and brand new letter jackets, you were viewing a "G" Club meeting sponsored by Mr. Darrell Hafling. "G" Club's biggest service is selling tags and pins, which add to game spirit. In the past the proceeds have paid for a scoreboard and a movie projector.

How can a club possibly exist with all boys and no girls. Well, it so happens that Key Club has more than 60 members all of which are boys and they all like it. Mr. Art Papenfus, sponsor, says that the best way of getting boys, after brainwashing, is to give them lots of activities. This year they had a booth at Carnival, a Homecoming float, distributed canned goods at Thanksgiving and Christmas, and had a campout at the end of the year. Although it's a blow to girls' egos, its helping to develop the members into leaders and men.

Hard work is always on the agenda for Key Club members. Here Dean Hawley prepares for a back-breaking blow while other members in the background work diligently.

Distributive Education Club

Everyone up! Donna Ward and Lee Smith try to look interested during a "talk" by Mr. Peterson.

If the students of Golden High School seem to be gaining weight, the blame can undoubtedly be placed on the school store which is run by DECA. The club had many other activities during the year besides the store. They had a float at homecoming which won second place. They also had a breakfast, a booth at carnival and went on a picnic.

Cheerleaders

Oh! Darn another fumble. Sue Easton Grimaces at the sight of another fumble at a Foot Ball game.

Yoo! Hoo! where'd every one go? Sue Easton and Chris Wagner seemed to have been abandoned except for the support of the Tridetts.

If only I were an airplane! Lindy Bullock leads the other cheerleaders into a soaring cheer full of spirit and fun.

Golden Tridettes and Cheerleader Chris Wagner are tense at the high point of the game.

GHS is very proud of the 21 vivacious singers and their director and leader Mr. Ryan.

Is it possible? Boys and girls going to school in shorts and pants. Thanks to AFS, Golden has had a Burmuda Day which is used to bring and exchange students from another country here. This year we were honored to have Jose Hopkins from Lima, Peru. Jose lived with John Stenmark and his family.

Mountaineering Club

Can you see yourself scaling the two hundred-foot side of a mountain. Some 50 GHS students have found the satisfaction and thrill of mountaineering in the Mountaineering Club. The Demons fought to their fullest and learned a lot this year. They got the experience they needed, and a good team is in the offering for next year!

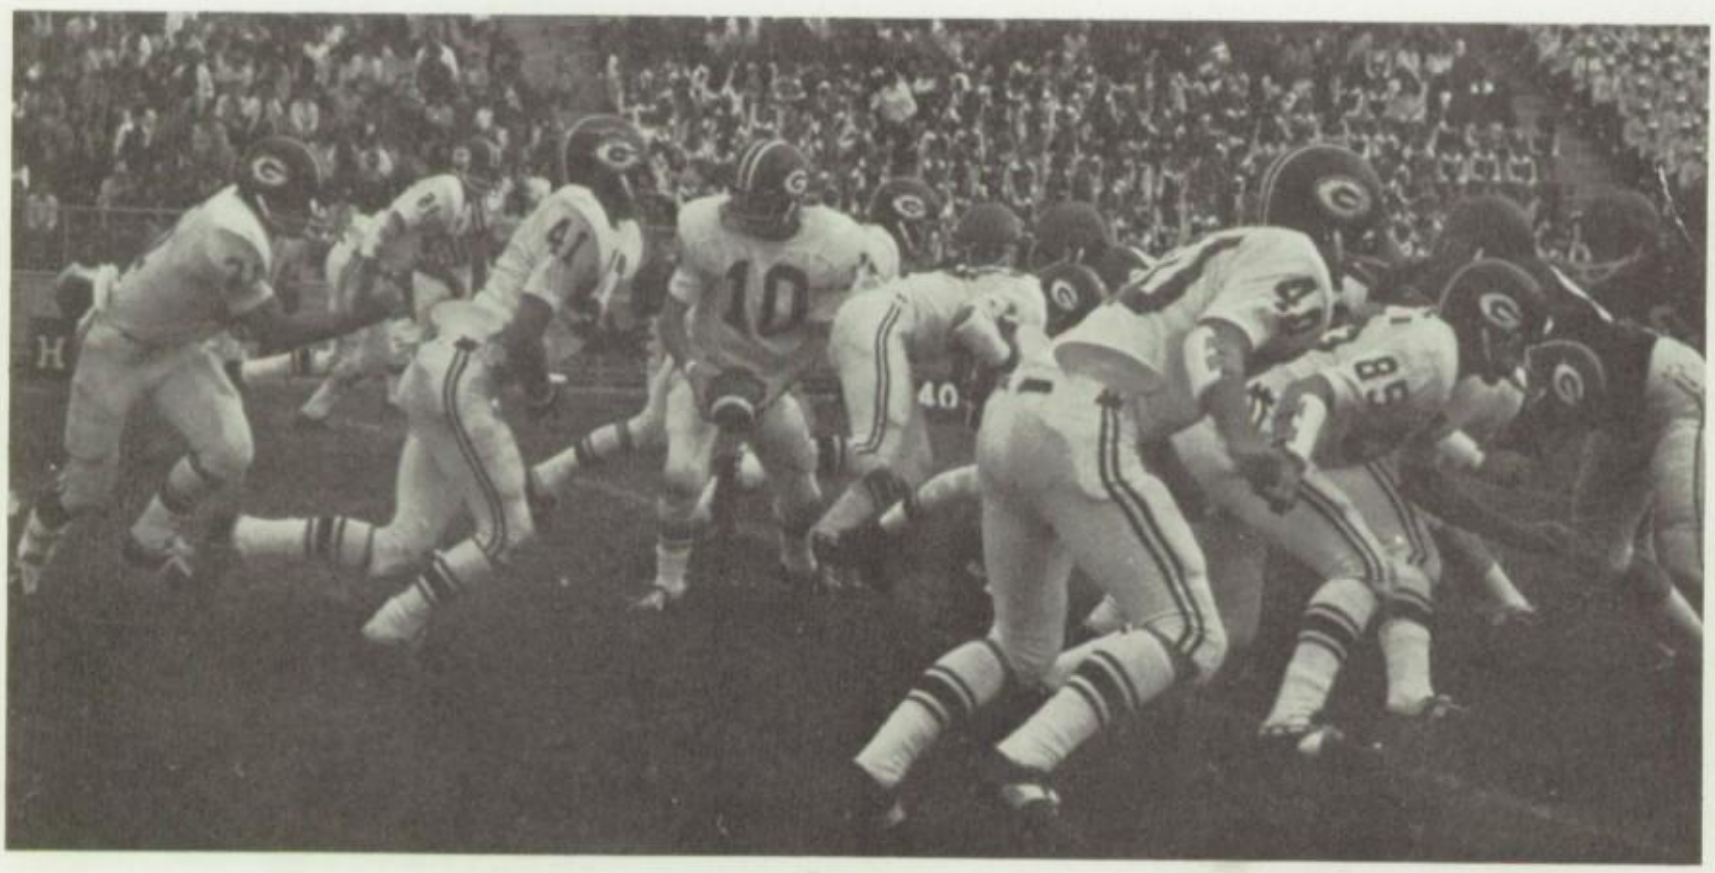
OK men, this is the plan! Coach Skene gave the team extra good advice, because they went on to win the Homecoming game 21-7.

Hit him left! Hit him left! Come on Demons, Fight, Fight, Fight!!! Pete Scott (85), and another Golden man get their man, while Ingle Refvem moves in to help.



Cliff Pike (10) hands the ball to Kim Barnes (41), and he's off to the races.

A Golden Player is tackled by an Arvada player after catching the ball on a pass play. The next play led to a touchdown.

Cliff Pike (10) sweeps around the end to make a first down during the Homecoming game.

As Kim Barnes (41) steps over the goal line about to catch a pass from Cliff Pike, Lakewood's 88 pats the ball away.

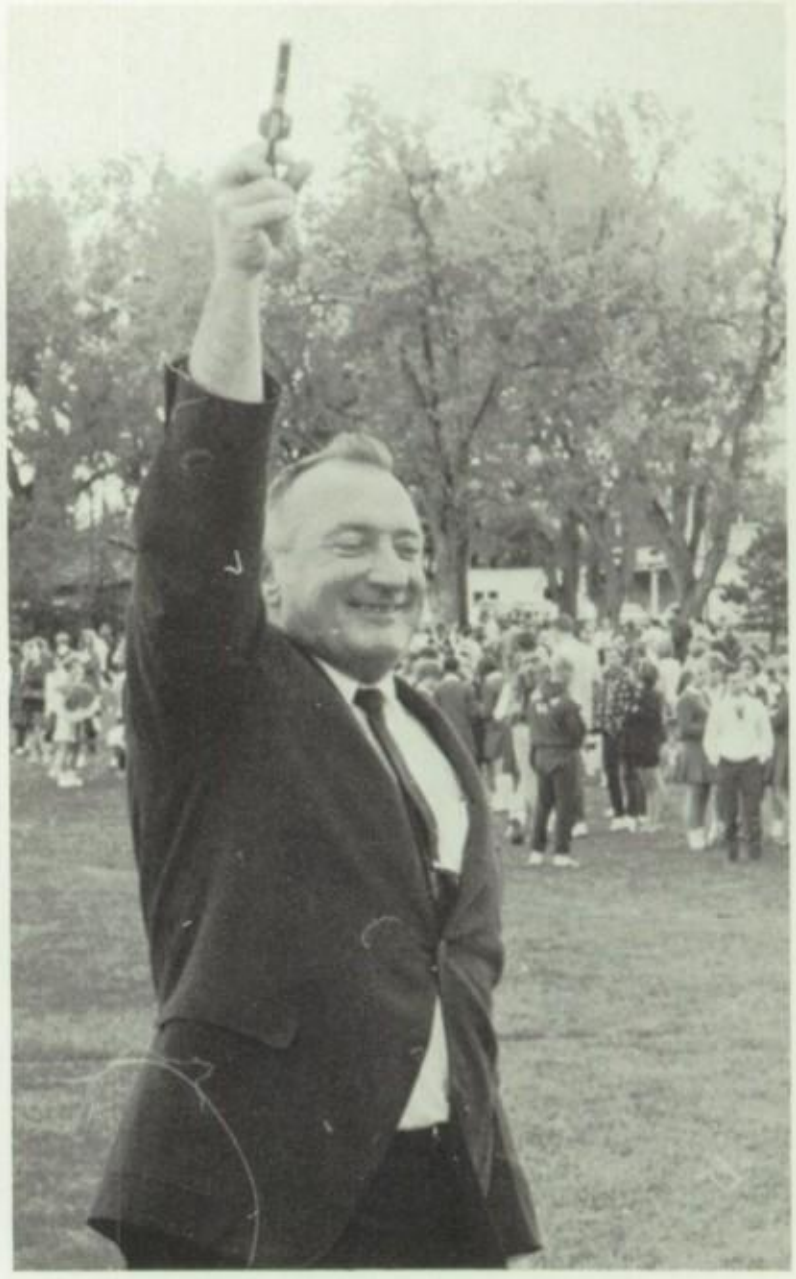
Cross Country

Out of a field of 72 competitors, in the Cross Country state meet, Golden's Cross Country team placed 14th. Coach Dick Booton had an outstanding team composed of seven seniors and six juniors. Dennis Dunn, Dan Roe, John Stenmark, Dave Braden, and Randy Mihoover won honors as the team's outstanding runners.



"On your mark, get set, go." Coach Booton prepares to pull the trigger before a cross country race.

Although it may look like coach Pershing and Dale Schossow have had a slight disagreement, they are merely waiting for a tennis match to begin.

Golden's Tennis team had a fine year. After many matches throughout the country Golden went to the district meet and came home with third place. It took individual players like Dale Schossow, who got first in district to make that possible. Also doing their part was Steve Gaskill, number two man from Jefferson County and the number one Golden doubles team of John Mooney and Jim Hult.

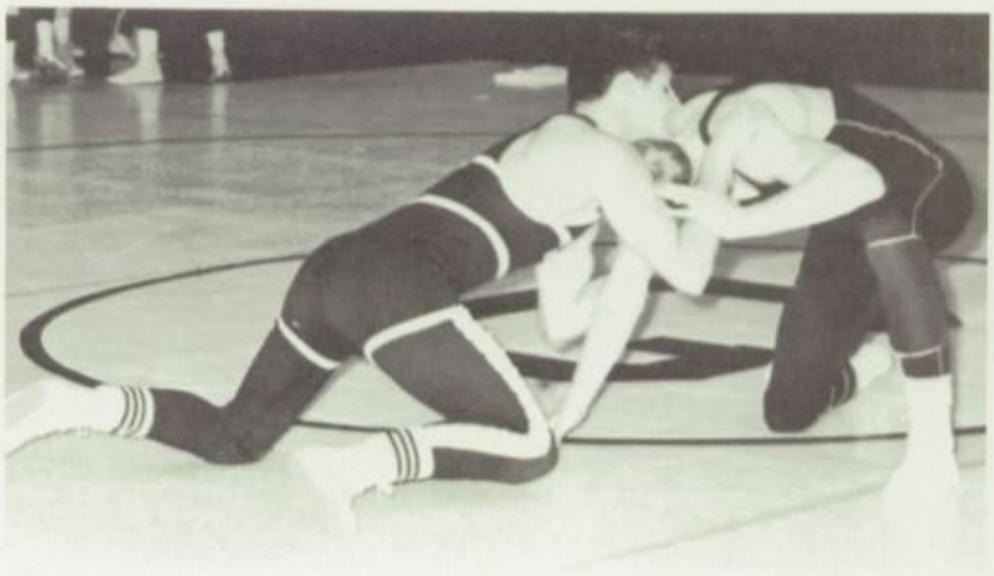
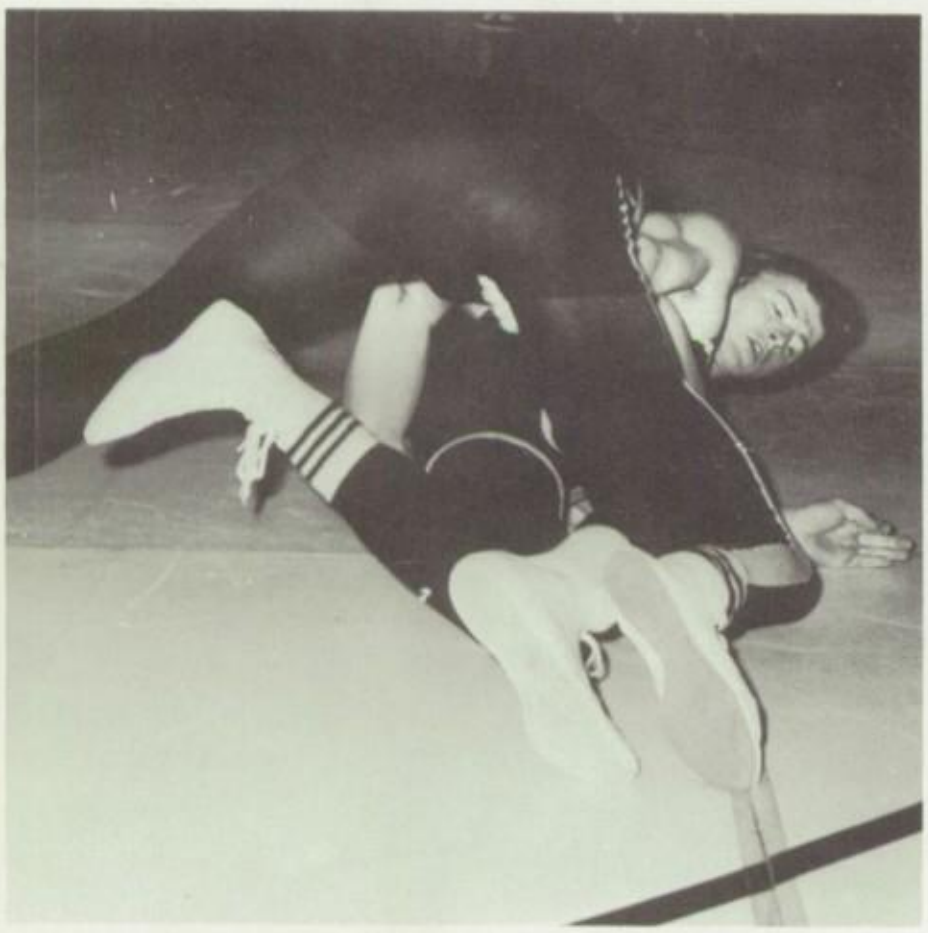
Although Golden didn't have a very successful year in wrestling, the future looks very promising. There will be 7 out of 12 returning lettermen. The biggest accomplishment of the season was when the sophomores took first at the Wasson Tournament in Colorado Springs. Golden can also be proud for sending Richard Bauman to State and for getting in the semi-finals.



The vampire strikes again as Brian Dunn attacks his man but always fairly.



Wrestle! Wrestle! Twist him like a pretzle. Jim Thorne tries to maneuver out of a precarious situation.

The wrestlers get together for a little gossip before the match is to begin.

"Chris you wouldn't laugh if you were out there." Dave Bauman (on top) struggles to spin his opponent.

Even though you drive me out of my mind, you're still a nice girl... sometimes. Ya Know I'm just joking. Remember how much fun we had at all those parties? Also remember all the R+C stuff you'd bring us from foods. Those were the good ole days. Well you're real swell. If you ever find another girl like me, be careful.
